

The Lincolnshire Branch of the Richard III Society

Presents

Face to Face with the Past

An illustrated talk by Jean
Townsend

Saturday 5th August 7.30pm

From Medieval England to Renaissance France we have portraits of past personalities that intrigue and amaze us; but are they really portraits and why were they painted? What kind of people were these long dead sitters? Jean will explore the stories behind the face.

Browse our books!

To be held at
Harrowby Lane Methodist Church Community Centre
Grantham, NG31 9PY

Tickets £5.00 -
Advance Booking is Essential
Includes tea/coffee and cake

Please send a stamped addressed envelope, plus cheque made payable to The Richard III Society Lincolnshire Branch, to:

Maureen Wheeldon
Eastfield House Farm
Mays Lane, Saxilby
Lincoln, LN1 2QE

Telephone Enquiries:
01522 703200

